

2. Truck Hours Corrected to Operated Rate

This includes hours that have already been paid. Time that has been added is highlighted in yellow. The standby hours paid for are changed to operated hours because they are necessary for the operation and were not being used for any other activity. The foreman's was truck added to every hour that he worked. Also a crew truck was added when the force account crew worked for at least 4 hours. The rates were found using Equipment Watch as provided as back up following
